INTRODUCTION

This guide is intended to assist you in navigating the AFMC Student Portal for Visiting Electives and will provide you with instructions on how to set up your account, apply for electives, view the status of your requests and accept or reject an offer.

We are pleased to announce that the Capacity-Based Model will launch on May 11th, 2025, with students applying for placements starting August 4th, 2025. The Capacity-Based Model will provide a robust, efficient, and cost-effective platform for students to secure a wide range of visiting electives in a timely manner. The improved model aims to standardize the application process for all students and schools. Students will apply for visiting electives in 2-week blocks with alignment on dates for 2-weeks blocks across all school. Application rounds will open on the same days for all schools. Rounds open and close at 12:00 AM (Central Time). There are 2 rounds within each 2-week block (All capacity pool, remaining capacity pool). Students will apply during 2-week blocks 12 weeks prior to elective start date.

Take a few minutes to familiarize yourself with the features of the Portal. If you have any questions once you've gone through the guide and followed the steps, please contact us at service@afmcstudentportal.ca. We are always available to help you.

SUBMIT AN APPLICATION

As part of the Capacity-Based Model launching May 11, 2025:

- Students will apply for visiting electives in 2-week blocks with alignment on dates for 2-weeks blocks across all school.
- Application rounds will open on the same days for all schools.
- Rounds open and close at 12:00 AM (Central Time) 2 rounds within each 2-week block (All capacity pool, remaining capacity pool)
- Students will apply during 2-week blocks 12 weeks prior to elective start date. Starting May 11th, you will see actual capacity
- Some sites, for example UofT will have generic sites to apply to (Downtown Toronto, GTA or both), for other schools, students can apply to the actual site
- Some schools may offer 4-week electives, it will be indicated in the title.
- Starting May 11th, you will no longer be required to pay application fees, only pay acceptance fees when you accept an offer
- Students will get responses in a timely manner
- Schools can no longer cancel an accepted placement. They will need to find the student an alternate placement for the same elective window, which can be in another specialty
- Students can no longer cancel an elective.
  - *As cancellations do have consequences – they strain our relationships with preceptors, and they come at an opportunity cost to another student, a cancellation should be viewed as an exceptional circumstance requiring their home program’s support. Cancellations must be requested by the home school to the host school.
  - A student who needs to cancel an elective should make this request to their home school Undergraduate Medical Education/Electives office (or equivalent), working through their home school Student Affairs office (or equivalent) as appropriate. If the cancellation is supported, the student’s home school Undergraduate Medical Education/Electives office will notify the host school for the visiting elective of the need to cancel, on behalf of the student. The reason for the cancellation need not be disclosed by the home school, nor should the reason be requested by the host school.
  - Should a student cancel an elective directly prior to the elective start date, without coordinating the cancellation via their home school Undergraduate Medical Education/Electives office, then the host school will typically notify the home school. Unapproved cancellations would be addressed through professionalism processes at the home school, as relevant.
- Students can submit a maximum of 3 applications per school and a maximum of 12 applications per placement round

- Each 2-week block will have 2 placement rounds. Initial block open Sunday to Tuesday for all capacity available. Following Wednesday, students can apply for the remaining capacity

➤ Lottery Process

- Ensures fairness for all students
- No first-in, first-out gives students adequate time to apply
- No more late nights waiting for application rounds to open

➤ Activities occur same days every 2-weeks

- Easier to plan when students need to apply and respond
- Higher probability of getting desired electives

Block opens 12 weeks prior for students to apply

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR QUEBEC STUDENT APPLYING TO ANOTHER QUEBEC SCHOOL

When you choose the elective you want, you must select the speciality related to the right trimester of your request. For an example, if the start date of the elective picked is related to the summer trimester at your home university, then you MUST choose the speciality related to “Summer” (e.g. “Internal Medicine Summer 2023”).

Also, when you choose the subspecialty, you MUST choose the subspecialty related to the elective chosen:

- For some university, the subspecialty is represented with the number of weeks (“Hematology 2 weeks”, “Hematology 4 weeks” ... etc.)
- For others, it’s represented with the number of applications done on the AFMC Portal (“Hematology 1st application”, “Cardiology 2nd application” ... etc.)

I want to apply to Hopital de Hull, Internal Medicine Winter, Nephrologie 2 weeks, for what is the winter term for my school, I click on the checkmark under Jan 13 opens the following screen:

You only need to upload your prerequisite once. You can only upload your prerequisites when you start an application to a school.

On the prerequisite screen below, you will see 3 prerequisites in yellow which means I need to upload these to complete my application to McGill:

CANCEL SAVE

CAN I CANCEL AN ELECTIVE WITHIN 6 WEEKS OF THE ELECTIVE START DATE?

Students can no longer cancel an elective, except for mitigating circumstances where both the home school and host school agree.

KEY INFORMATION I NEED TO KNOW BEFORE I APPLY?

Please ensure you review the institution profile for the school you wish to apply for. There is important information that changes on an ongoing basis to provide students with key information needed prior to applying for an elective.

Please note that if you want to apply for an elective that is being offered over several weeks and you want are available for multiple times during that period, you only need to apply ONCE and put in the comments your availability. Applying multiple times for the same elective at the same school for different timeframes is frowned upon as it is more work for the elective coordinators and you will be required to pay for each application submitted, there will be no refunds provided in this case. The dates you choose for your application would be your preferred date; in the comments you would put in alternate dates that you are available. This way, the elective coordinators and the placement contacts at the sites will be in a better position to offer you a placement.

Please NOTE that the University of British Columbia and NOSM University do NOT allow for multiple applications made to their school for the same time frame. If you submit 2 applications for 2 different electives for the same time, one will automatically be rejected, and you will not be provided a refund. If you are interested in another elective at the school, enter it in the comments section.
